

Michael Staab, MD

Dr. Michael Staab is the founder of CardiologyWise LLC and a practicing cardiologist in partnership with a premier cardiology group in the Denver metropolitan area. He is a hospital cardiology section chief and the past director of the echocardiography and nuclear imaging laboratories for this practice.

Dr. Staab earned his bachelor's degree in Finance and his M.D. from the University of Colorado, completed his residency at Duke University Medical Center, and was a Fellow at the Mayo Clinic's Division of Cardiovascular Disease.

Geeta Nayyar, MD

Geeta Nayyar, M.D. is principal medical officer at Vangent, Inc. and serves on faculty at the George Washington University as an Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine in the Department of Rheumatology. She has been quoted by numerous media outlets on healthcare topics, and is an expert panel provider for AHRQ.

Dr. Nayyar earned her Bachelor's Degree in Biology and M.D. from the University of Miami in Miami, Florida. She also earned her MBA at The George Washington University in Washington, D.C., where she performed her Internal Medicine Internship and Residency, and where she is a Rheumatology Fellow.

Todd Sweberg, MD

Dr. Todd Sweberg is a pediatric intensivist at Long Island Jewish in New Hyde Park, New York. He previously performed the same function at Montefiore Medical Center in the Bronx, where he was also a member of the Clinical Information Systems Oversight Committee, advising the medical center's IT Department regarding issues related to EMR and other systems.

Dr. Sweberg holds a bachelor's degree in Biology from the University of Vermont and his MD from the Robert Wood Johnson Medical School at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey. He completed his residency and fellowship training at New York Presbyterian Hospital-Weill Cornell Medical Center.

John Chelico, MD, MA

Dr. John Chelico is the Assistant Chief Medical Information Officer (CMIO) for New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation's Bellevue Hospital Center, Instructor of Clinical Medicine at NYU School of Medicine, and a practicing hospitalist at both Bellevue and Good Samaritan Hospital in West Islip, NY.

Dr. Chelico is a graduate of New York University and attended medical school at the State University of New York Downstate Medical Center. He was residency trained in Internal Medicine at the NYU affiliated, North Shore University Hospital in Long Island, New York, and completed a Post Doctoral Fellowship and Masters Degree in Biomedical Informatics at the Columbia University Medical Center. Dr. Chelico is Board Certified in Internal Medicine.

Andrea Fortney, RN, MS

Ms. Fortney has been a Register Nurse for over 25 years and has spent a significant amount of her career using clinical data to assess outcomes of care. Currently, she is the Chief Operating Officer for Austin Provider Solutions, a company devoted to measuring clinical quality of care and utilization of healthcare delivery systems. She is a Registered Nurse currently pursuing a degree in Information Systems and completing a thesis for her Graduate degree in Information Technology with a concentration in Project Management.

She has been married for 28 years, has two grown daughters, and resides in Highlands Ranch, Colorado.

Peter W. Henderson, MD

Dr. Peter Henderson is a general surgeon and researcher at New York Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. In addition to his clinical practice in a large, tertiary care hospital network, he is active in both outcomes and biomedical engineering research. He is author or co-author of over 75 peer-reviewed papers and presentations, as well as 3 book chapters.

Dr. Henderson graduated with honors from both Harvard University and Weill Cornell Medical College. Keenly aware of the importance of the interplay between medicine and business, he earned his MBA at NYU Stern School of Business in New York City.

Rochelle Pleskow, M.S.H.S.A.

Rochelle J. Pleskow is a senior healthcare professional with a unique blend of expertise including acute care facilities, ambulatory centers, health plans and physician groups encompassing all aspects of the healthcare industry.

Ms. Pleskow received her B.A. and M.S. from the State University of New York at Buffalo, School of Medicine & Biomedical Sciences and currently resides in San Francisco. She enjoys working out, travelling, and enjoying all that San Francisco has to offer.

Michael C. Hoaglin, MD/MBA Candidate

Michael C. Hoaglin is a medical student at the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine and a Fellow at the Penn Center for Technology Transfer. He is a 2010 HIMSS Foundation Scholar and advised the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services in Washington, DC, on health technology reform.

Mr. Hoaglin received dual Bachelor's degrees in Biomedical Engineering and Electrical Engineering with Honors from Northwestern University's McCormick School of Engineering in 2006. He has experience in the medical device industry as an engineer for Ethicon Endosurgery, a Johnson & Johnson Company, and worked in multidisciplinary clinical research at Northwestern and Scripps Clinics. As a consultant, he focused on clinical transformation via electronic health records and content management of consumer-facing health information. Mr. Hoaglin is a 2007 Rotary International Ambassadorial Scholar.

Douglas A. Costa

Douglas Costa has over a decade of experience in healthcare administration and is the former Chief Operating Officer of a large physician organization in Dallas Texas.

Mr. Costa holds a Bachelor of Science in Marketing from Bentley College in Waltham, MA, and an MBA from the Stern School of Business at New York University in New York, NY. Originally from the greater Boston area, Doug currently resides in Dallas, TX, and New York City with his wife, Kim. He is actively involved in his local communities and American Heart Association philanthropic initiatives.

Nancy K. Connolly

Nancy Kramek Connolly is a Vice President and Partner with Hammes Company and serves on the company's management board. Mrs. Connolly is responsible for managing the firm's activities for the East Region, which includes more than $1.2B in facility development. Mrs. Connolly is actively engaged with clients at the executive and board level regarding market strategy and execution. Prior to joining Hammes Company, Mrs. Connolly worked for the Advisory Board Company, assisting healthcare executives nationally with strategic planning and implementation of business practices to improve hospital operations and performance.

Mrs. Connolly graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Science from Springfield College in Springfield, MA, and an MBA in Marketing and Corporate Strategy from The Robert H. Smith College of Business at The University of Maryland, College Park.